Editorial Message

At the International Association of Buddhist Universities, we have several principles that we take as our guidelines in moving forward in our engagements. Here is a reminder of how we progress:

IABU Vision:

- Motivate future generations to gain and apply profound understanding of the Buddhadhamma in every aspect of life
- Raise the quality of scholarly work within Buddhist Studies and across other academic endeavors
- Contribute to meeting the challenges that face human society worldwide

IABU Mission:

- Support and collaborate with members to ensure humanity can benefit from the richness and variety of the multi-dimensional Buddhist traditions
- Provide a framework towards better understanding diverse policies and activities
- Collaborate in administration, teaching, research and outreach
- Recognize each other's qualifications

IABU Goals:

- Propagate the Buddhadhamma through collaborative academic channels
- Eliminate Buddhist sectarian, national, and institutional barriers
- Raise the academic standards throughout the Buddhist world
- Maximize academic potentials and abilities

Volume XII Number I:

This publication of volume 12 No.1 could not have been possible without the persistence, hard work, and dedication of MCU's scholars, Buddhist's Scholars worldwide and IBSC staff. Ven. Prof. Dr. Phrarajapariyatkavi and his team supervise communication and collection of the paper. Director of the IABU Secretariat Office, Venerable Assoc. Prof. Dr. Phramaha Hansa Dhammaso and his team produce a decent format and design. We wish to also thank all members of the Executive Council and the Editorial Committee for their devotion. We are also grateful to our many sponsors of the last World Mindfulness Forum during 15 May 2019, the IABU Executive Secretary Venerable Khammai Dhammasami, the academic team of IABU-MCU for their assistance, particularly Ven. Phra Weerasak Jayadhammo – for his kind dedication and editing, we would also like to welcome James Featherstone and Samaneri Daria Mikheeva who joined the team for an Internship in Academic Works at JIABU.
