

The Southeast Asian Cultural Heritage Alliance is a joint commitment of government, the people, and the business sector to cultural heritage protection policies and actions to safeguard Southeast Asian cultural heritage intact for future generations. The Siam Society is among the founding members.

Cha-Time with SEACHA is a program for sharing knowledge and experiences on common cultural heritage issues in Southeast Asian countries through online lectures. The 2020–2021 series of ten lectures on Building Climate Resiliency Through Local Community Wisdom can be viewed on YouTube.

---

Living with water: amphibious architecture and city	Chutayaves Sinthuphan
Past wisdoms, resilient futures: the value of reclaiming a low carbon urban site	Gwynn Jenkins
Local practices to strengthen resilience in Vietnam's northern upland: role of social capital in housing changes to cope with flood and landslide	Emmanuel Pannier and Phan Phuong Anh
Traditional water management system of Hsipaw: historic town in Shan State, Myanmar	Moe Moe Lwin
Sense of place: the intersection between built heritage and intangible cultural heritage in Singapore	Jack Tsen-Ta Lee
Authenticity and cultural values in cultural heritage conservation, a case of Majapahit houses program in Trowulan	Catrini Pratihari Kubontubuh
Kampong Ayer – history, traditions, and resilience	Dalilah Nabilah
Shared spaces, shared heritage: colonial period open spaces in Philippines	Michael F. Manalo and Paulo Alcazaren
Locating the Vann Molyvann project in contemporary Cambodia	Pen Sereypngna
Laos cultural heritage of sericulture and silk crafts adapting to climate change	Noynith Chanthamith

---

Link: SEACHA on YouTube

www.thesiamsociety.org/seacha

SEACHA on facebook